Dave McCormack

President, Waukeshaw Development, Petersburg

Dave McCormack has worked as a writer and musician, but these days you probably know him best as a developer who renovates and adapts historic buildings in Virginia's small towns. Based in Petersburg, McCormack started Trapezium Brewing Co. there and Beale's Brewery in Bedford, along with numerous residential projects from Cape Charles (where he lives with his family) to Madison Heights, often started in rundown, occasionally termite-infested industrial buildings. Next on McCormack's agenda: a boutique hotel in Bedford and a second Beale's Brewery location in York County. •
