DANDY CITIZENS FOR PROTECTING RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY VALUES

We, the undersigned residents of Dandy, want to preserve our unique way of life in Dandy. We are concerned State Government code changes taking effect January 1, 2015 may cause our rural residential character to be lost. We have read the summary comparison of the RR and R33 zoning regulations and believe R33 is appropriate for Dandy. Therefore we demand the York County Board of Supervisors rezone our RR zoning to R33 zoning to protect residential property values and ensure both safety and local control.
