

Traveling with Martha Washington* lecture scheduled for Sept. 25 in York Hall

September 16, 2016

Noted author and historian Ms. Feather Schwartz Foster will present Traveling with Martha Washington at 3 p.m. on Sunday, September 25, at York Hall, 301 Main Street, in historic Yorktown. Foster, a Williamsburg resident, will discuss some of the little-known aspects of Martha Washington's travels to visit her husband, General George Washington.

Ms. Foster specializes in the lives of America's First Ladies. An author of four published books and a past guest of NPR-Radio and C-SPAN, she portrays the First Ladies as individuals, with insight into their unique personalities and influences on their respective husbands.

Two of Ms. Foster's books will be available for purchasing and signing in York Hall following the lecture. One is the newly-published "Mary Lincoln's Flannel Pajamas and Other Stories from the First Ladies' Closet." The other is her widely-acclaimed 2011 book "The First Ladies: From Martha Washington to Mamie Eisenhower, An Intimate Portrait of the Women Who Shaped America."

This lecture is free and open to the public. For more information, please call the York County Parks, Recreation and Tourism office at (757) 890-3500.

