

Bobby “BlackHat” to perform October 10

October 1, 2009

FOR RELEASE AT WILL

The York County Public Library’s Second Saturday at Seven Concert Series welcomes Bobby “BlackHat” Walters to the Tabb Library at 7 p.m. on Oct. 10. This talented blues harmonica player, vocalist and songwriter hails from Cleveland, Ohio, and has been playing harp for over 30 years.

Walters believes that the best blues come from personal experience. You can see that philosophy in his original works such as “Please Give Me a Clue” and “I Hear Mama’s Voice.” His latest CD, “Wall Street Blues,” was released in April. The title track captures the mood, pain and frustration of everyone who is struggling due to the weakened economy. The CD includes blues, rockabilly and soulful ballads.

The Second Saturday at Seven Concert Series is sponsored by the Friends of the York County Public Library. Performances begin at 7 p.m. at the Tabb Library, and admission is free.

For more information on this and other library events, visit our Web site at www.yorkcounty.gov/library or contact the Tabb Library at 890-5120 or the Yorktown Library at 890-5207. The Tabb Library is located at the intersection of Hampton Highway (VA Rt. 134) and Long Green Boulevard, across from the Victory YMCA. The Yorktown Library is located at the intersection of George Washington Memorial Highway (Route 17) and Battle Road.
