

Food for Fines at York County Libraries

October 27, 2009

FOR RELEASE AT WILL

The York County Public Library is sponsoring a Food for Fines amnesty program from Nov. 1-14.

Patrons with overdue materials may bring non-perishable food items to either the Tabb or Yorktown Library to pay their overdue fines. One food item will pay one fine, regardless of the amount of the fine. Patrons may bring as many food items as they have overdue books, DVDs, cassettes or CDs. The Food for Fines program does not apply to charges for lost or damaged items.

Patrons should bring their canned or boxed food items to the Circulation desk, along with their library card, to receive credit on their account. Donated items will benefit local food closets.

For more information, contact the library at 757-890-5100. The Tabb Library is located at the intersection of Hampton Highway (VA Rt. 134) and Long Green Boulevard, across from the Victory YMCA. The Yorktown Library is located at the intersection of George Washington Memorial Highway (Route 17) and Battle Road.
