

Supervisors seek to facilitate creation of new 4th of July Committee

November 4, 2009

FOR RELEASE AT WILL

The York County Board of Supervisors would like to facilitate the formation of an independent group of citizens to serve as the body in charge of planning the activities and events of the annual 4th of July celebration in Historic Yorktown.

Any York County citizen wishing to volunteer may call the Public Information Office at 890-3300 to express interest.
