

2nd Annual “Shagging on the Riverwalk” Concert Series to be Held at Riverwalk Landing

Yorktown, May 4--Back by popular demand, York County Tourism and Events is excited to offer the Second Annual “Shagging on the Riverwalk” Beach Music Concert Series, to be held this spring and summer at Riverwalk Landing in historic Yorktown. Entertainment will take place from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. on the performance stage at Riverwalk Landing, overlooking the York River in historic Yorktown, on Fridays beginning June 1 and continuing through June 29. Following a two-week break, the series will resume July 20 and run through August 17.

This ten-week concert series will feature some of the area’s top acts playing beach favorites, oldies, Motown and more. The Colonial Shag Club will provide shag lessons and demonstrations, and children’s activities also will be available for the kids. Don’t forget to bring your dancing shoes, as the dance floor will give you the opportunity to practice your shagging.
