Sometime around 1:30 AM on 05-23-08 some unknown suspect (s) broke into the Custom Mill Work Shop in the 300 block of Ewell Rd. located in the Williamsburg area of York County. Entry was gained by breaking out a window, but nothing was stolen.

Sometime unknown between 05-22-08 and 05-23-08 some unknown suspect(s) entered the Bargain Box Thrift Store located in the 200 block of Dare Rd. through a side door. Once inside someone stole a tan colored Royal brand cash register and misc. costume jewelry.

At approximately 11:23 PM on 05-23-08 2 unknown black male suspects attempted to rob a victim in the parking lot, directly across from the Waterman's Museum in Yorktown. The victim advised that he was standing at the rear of his friends` vehicle when suspects approached him. The victim advised that suspect #2 circled around behind him and suspect #1 stood in front of him. Suspect #1 then pulled a small, silver, semi-automatic handgun out of his right front pants pocket. The suspect pointed the handgun at the victim, then pushed him backwards with his left hand and stated "give me what you have in your wallet!" The victim then ran towards the opposite side of the street. The victim advised that both suspects then ran towards a red vehicle at the east end of this same parking lot. The suspects then got into the vehicle and left towards Ballard Street. The victim was unable to provide a description of the vehicle, other than its color. The victim was also unable to describe suspect #2. The victim provided the following description of suspect #1. He is described as being approximately 5`6`, thin build, short hair, black t-shirt, blue jeans, unknown shoe description. The subject was also wearing a long silver chain with a silver cross. The victim was unable to describe the face of suspect #1. The suspects did not obtain any property from the victim. The victim also advised that the suspects did not touch anything other than him.

Sometime unknown between 05-23-08 and 05-27-08 some unknown suspect(s) stole a 300 foot spool of copper wire and 25 pieces of assorted copper from a work site located in the 300 block of English Garden Way located in the Williamsburg area of York County.

Sometime unknown between 05-26-08 and 05-28-08 some unknown suspect placed an unknown glue type substance in a mailbox lock located in the 100 block of Appaloosa drive in the Yorkshire Downs subdivision of Tabb.
