He then nominated Sheila S. Noll for the office of Chairman of the Board of Supervisors for 2022. He specifically noted that his nomination was based upon her excellent past service on the Board and on his recent conversation with her relative to parental involvement in our children's education. In addition, he noted that Mrs. Noll has assured him that the Board will revisit the aforementioned draft resolution should the new Governor, for any reason, not support parental rights in this matter. As such, Mr. Zaremba stated that it was indeed a pleasure to make this nomination.

Mr. Green wished everyone a happy and prosperous New Year. He thanked Mr. Morgan and staff for their ingenuity and hard work over the last two years to keep the County strong. He also thanked Legislative Assistant/Deputy County Clerk, Heather Schott, for her excellent, professional service to the Board and the County.

Mr. Zaremba wished for the County's continued successful navigation through the ongoing trials presented by the pandemic. He encouraged parents to raise their children to be solid citizens of the County and the country at-large. He stated that the Board members work for the citizenry of the County and not for any special interest group. He reminded everyone of the article in Niche magazine that reported York County is one of the best places to raise and educate children. In closing, he wished good health for everyone and God's blessings.

Mr. Roane stated that he is looking forward to what we can do collectively in 2022 and expects that brighter days are ahead. He also commended County staff for the many compliments he has received from citizens on the great job there are doing.

Mr. Shepperd echoed Mrs. Noll's comments on the great job previous Board Chairman, Chad Green, had done during a very arduous two years. He explained that during his tenure as Chairman he had to deal with many new challenges presented by the pandemic such as changes in certain laws and procedures as well as the introduction of many new technologies to include the necessity for virtual Board meetings. He also pointed out that the new real estate assessments have been released and encouraged citizens to carefully read the information they receive since there is a limited amount of time in which to challenge assessments. He recommended first discussing the assessment with the Real Estate Assessor, but noted that citizens also have the option to submit a formal appeal.

Mr. Barnett wished everyone a happy New Year and added that he will keep them updated on actions taken by the 2022 General Assembly. Lastly, he reminded the Board that they may contact him at any time if they have questions or need his assistance.

Mr. Shepperd asked Mr. Barnett to check on the General Assembly's action relative to a tax issue, better known as Proposition 13 and report back to the Board.

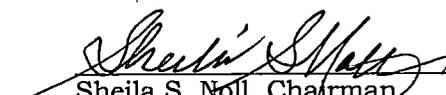

Mr. Morgan wished everyone a happy New Year and congratulated the new Board officers for 2022. He thanked Mr. Green for his leadership over the past somewhat turbulent two years.

Mrs. Noll explained that AARP (American Association of Retired Persons) tax aide is in great need of volunteers to assist residents who need to prepare their own taxes and to especially assist the elderly in this manner. She stated that one-on-one training is available to any residents who wish to volunteer. In addition, she stated that those wishing to volunteer may call Jay Harper, Tax Aide Coordinator, at (757) 870-1603 in order to do so. In closing, she read a short prayer.

Meeting Adjourned. At 6:24 p.m. Chairman Noll declared the meeting adjourned sine die.
