Bring Your Playful Pups to Saturday's Paws at the River Market! Next week, Vintage Market Returns to the MAC

- It's going to be a PAWSITIVELY fabulous Halloween this Saturday, Oct. 31 as Yorktown Market Days celebrates its annual Paws at the River. More than 50 vendors and artists will line the Riverwalk with the market fun extending down to the green in front of Water Street Grille. That's where you'll find several pet vendors and animal rescue organizations. The market runs 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. with free pet pictures from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. (If you are in line by noon, you will get your photo taken. All images will be uploaded to Visit Yorktown's Facebook page on Nov. 2). The Halloween Pet Parade takes place at 1 p.m. and will make a short loop around the market (social distancing will apply and masks must be worn to participate in the parade). NEW this year - participating businesses will hand out goodies from 10 to 3. A trick-or-treat map will be posted at Visit Yorktown along with several signs displayed throughout town that day. A limited number of bags will be available at each location. Your child may also want to bring his or her own to the market. For visitors with dogs who are skittish around loud noises, please make note that the Fifes and Drums of York Town will march through the area at 10 a.m.

- COMING UP NEXT WEEK: Market fun moves to the MAC (McReynolds Athletic Complex). If you enjoy shopping for restored old furniture; vintage clothing and jewelry; and one-of-a-kind handcrafted pieces—you don't want to miss York County's Vintage Market on November 7. You're invited to browse the McReynolds Athletic Complex from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. to search for collectibles, antiques, art, accessories, and unique home décor! www.visitryorktown.org

Below is our table of registered voters and turnout so far, by precinct.

We have received back and processed (run through the tabulator) 5,597 ballots. We call this pre-processing because we do this before Election Day. We start before Election Day so that we can have the results completed in a timely way on Election Night or soon thereafter.

We have received back and have not yet processed 508 ballots. We anticipate resuming processing of ballots on Monday, November 2, to get as close to zero in that column as possible before we start Election Day.

There are 1,655 ballots that have been sent to voters that have not yet been returned to us. These voters may be mailing their ballot back to us (they must be postmarked by November 3 and we must have it by noon on November 6). Or else these voters may appear at the polling place or our office today, tomorrow, or on Election Day and vote in person. If they choose to appear in person on Election Day, they will need to bring their ballot or they will have to vote a provisional ballot. We may have a record number of provisional ballots if voters appear on Election Day without the ballot that we mailed to them.

The final column is the number of voters I estimate will vote at each polling place on Election Day if York County has an 80% turnout. As the number of voters who have returned their ballot OR who have voted in person increases, the numbers in this column decrease. I anticipate that we will end up with about 11,000-15,000 voting on Election Day in York County. This is down from about 30,000 on Election Day four years ago.

The average daily number of voters we have had voting in person this week at our two office locations is 914.

| Precinct Name | Active | Inactive | All | Returned Ballots that have been counted on machine | Returned Ballots that have not been put through the machine yet | Voters who have voted in person | Voters in each precinct who haven't voted in person or returned their ballot yet | % Voters who haven't voted yet | Ballots that have been mailed or emailed to voters but not yet returned | If 80% turnout, the anticipated number who will show up on Election Day at each precinct as of Oct 30, 2020 |
