The Gallery at York Hall Opens April 1

March 25, 2022

The Gallery at York Hall opens on Friday, April 1, for the 2022 season with operating hours of 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesdays through Saturdays, and 1 to 4 p.m. Sundays (excluding Easter Sunday). Admission is free. The Gallery at York Hall is located at 301 Main Street in Historic Yorktown and is a cooperative effort between the Celebrate Yorktown Committee and York County.

The Gallery is managed by volunteer Sharon Owen and features the works of more than 300 local artists along with a variety of themed exhibits that change every six to eight weeks. The staff of 30-plus volunteers serve the community by maintaining an information area for visitors, offering brochures, maps, and discounts, along with friendly service and hospitality.

This season kicks off with a Quilts Past & Present Exhibit for April and May featuring a variety of quilts including hand-made, vintage, and fiber art quilts. Summer exhibits at the Gallery include photography and pottery featuring local artists, authors, and historians. Don't miss local acoustical guitarist Lou Vangieri in the Gallery on April 24 and May 22 from 12 to 2:30 p.m. Author Maria St. Clair will host a book signing on May 8 from 2 to 3:30 p.m.

The Gallery remains one of the most unique locations to purchase one-of-a-kind Yorktown souvenirs, including items featuring the popular Yorktown Onion, Fifes and Drums of York Town, Revolutionary-era soldiers, and nautical-themed art. The spring/summer exhibits at the Gallery are:
