Say “Bon Jour” to this Weekend’s Sister Cities French Market

At tomorrow’s market (4/16) we recognize our relationship with Port Vendres, France. From 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., a variety of palate-pleasing items will be available for purchase including french breads, macarons, crepes, and beignets. Enjoy a glass of wine in the Wine Garden, and don’t miss the silent auction where you can bid on fine items. Of course, you can shop for all your market favorites. This Week at the Market has the list of vendors scheduled each week. Return next Saturday for the Pirate Invasion Market and step back into the Golden Age of piracy as Riverwalk Landing and the Watermen’s Museum are invaded by these scalawags! Young and old alike are welcome to learn more about pirates’ lives in the 17th and 18th centuries. 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. The pirates return Sunday with a full schedule of activities. Additional information about Market Days is available on the Visit Yorktown website.

FY2023 Budget Public Hearing is Tuesday

The public is invited to attend the Board of Supervisors’ meeting (4/19) to speak during the proposed fiscal year 2023 budget public hearing. Beginning at 7 p.m., citizens may provide their input to the Board of Supervisors for consideration prior to the scheduled adoption on May 3. Those who are unable to attend may leave a voice mail message on (757) 890-3220 or send an email to the Board. Budget documents and presentations are available on the County’s website.

Historic Garden Week Coming to Yorktown

Ticket-holders can tour four properties and two gardens on Wednesday, April 27, when this special event comes to Yorktown.

The stops include the historic Custom House on Main Street and its colonial herb garden. Tickets are still available online. Also that day, visitors can enjoy a special mid-week Garden Market! Fresh-cut flowers, tropical plants, produce, baked goods, and more are available for purchase from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Riverwalk Landing. The giant LOVE sign will be decorated for Garden Week and is a great place to have your picture taken. Event information is available on the Visit Yorktown website.

Movies in the Parks Return

We welcome back this fun, family-friendly Parks & Recreation event returning for the season next Saturday, April 23, at New Quarter Park. Grab a blanket or lawn chairs and enjoy a free movie in this gorgeous County park. In honor of Earth Day, next weekend's movie is "WALL-E" and begins approximately 15 minutes after sunset. Free popcorn is available and other concessions may be purchased. If the weather looks iffy, be sure to check the Rainout Line at (757) 890-3501, ext. 35, prior to traveling to the park.

Senior Citizens: Does your CarFit?

York County is proud to be hosting this free, community-based educational program at the McReynolds Athletic Complex (MAC) from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Tuesday, April 26. During this program, a team of trained professionals completes a 12-point checklist to ensure driver safety. Items include position of the seat, proper mirror adjustment, and the driver's ability to reach the pedals. Please schedule your appointment online or by calling (757) 890-4102. This CarFit event is sponsored by Peninsula Seniors and Law Enforcement Together (S.A.L.T.).

Additional Notes for the Week...The York County Public Library is closed Sunday (4/17) in observance of Easter. Pedal the Parkway is next Friday through Sunday (4/22-24) between Route 199/Kingspoint and Route 359 at Jamestown. This segment of the Colonial Parkway will be vehicle-free and open to visitors to safely ride their bikes, walk, run, push a stroller, and enjoy the lovely scenery.
