Subject: Voter Registrar Links

In the past couple of BOS meetings there was discussion about easy to find election info. With early voting starting tomorrow, just want to make sure you are aware of all the navigation to the Voter Registration page across the website, including under the "how do I" from the top of the page. We have recently added two highly visible links on the homepage, along with a video (starting tomorrow) running on the TV channels and will be shared on social media. The info and links also appeared in last month's Citizen News Quarterly and in last week's Citizen News Weekly and is posted online.
