

COUNTY OF YORK, VIRGINIA

America's Future Since 1781

P24-10

PROCLAMATION

UNITED WAY - DAY OF CARING September 20, 2024

WHEREAS, the United Way of the Virginia Peninsula has been a cornerstone of our community, devotedly working to enhance the lives of individuals and families in need; and

WHEREAS, the annual Day of Caring scheduled for September 20, 2024, stands as our community's largest volunteer event of the year and marks the official launch of the United Way's annual giving campaign, which unites hundreds of volunteers to make a meaningful impact on nonprofits and human service providers who support our neighbors; and

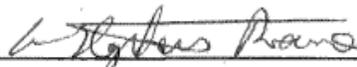

WHEREAS, the Day of Caring provides a special chance for community members to gain a deeper understanding of local needs and to dedicate their time and skills to projects that offer direct benefits to those in need, thereby promoting a spirit of unity and compassion; and

WHEREAS, the County of York acknowledges the significance of supporting the mission of the United Way and extends its commendation to the staff, volunteers, and partners whose dedication makes a difference in the lives of others.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, that Friday, September 20, 2024, be, and it is hereby, designated as United Way Day of Caring.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the County of York, Virginia, to be affixed this 17th day of September, 2024.

G. Stephen Roane, Jr., Chairman
York County Board of Supervisors

