

3: PERSONS TO BE SERVED

- A. The Library will serve the residents of the County of York. Service will be neither denied nor abridged on the grounds of racial, religious, socioeconomic or political status.
- B. The Library will also serve persons residing outside of York County who demonstrate a reasonable need for this service. There is no non-resident fee. This service is subject to discontinuance if it appears that service to York County residents is in any way limited.
- C. Interlibrary Loan service will be extended to residents of the County of York exclusively. This transaction will be a function of the Adult Services Department.
- D. If an individual or group makes excessive demands on the library, thereby affecting service to the general public, then service to the individual or group may be limited.
- E. The use of the Library and its services may be denied to people who fail to return library materials, accumulate excessive fines, destroy library property, act in an objectionable fashion in the library, or refuse to obey library rules.
