York County's First Responders Advocate for FY2026 Budget Support

The first responders of York County, comprising firefighters, paramedics and 911 dispatchers, are calling upon the citizens and business owners to rally behind the proposed FY2026 budget. This budget is fundamental in ensuring the continued safety, efficiency, and effectiveness of the emergency services that the community relies on. With heartfelt gratitude, the first responders express their thanks in advance for the community's support.

First responders are the backbone of York County's emergency response system. They are the individuals who rush towards danger when everyone else flees, providing essential services such as firefighting, emergency medical care, hazardous material incidents, water rescue and recovery just to name a few. Their dedication and selfless service play a vital role in maintaining the safety and well-being of the community.

The proposed FY2026 budget includes critical allocations aimed at enhancing the capabilities and resources of York County's first responders. These investments are designed to meet the growing needs of the community and ensure that first responders can perform their duties effectively.

The success of the FY2026 budget proposal hinges on the support of York County's citizens and business owners. Community backing is essential for the approval and implementation of the budget. The first responders are reaching out to the community to highlight the importance of these investments and to encourage active participation in the budget approval process.

- Attend Public Meetings: Participate in public meetings where the budget will be discussed. Voice your support and ask questions to better understand the allocations.
- Contact Elected Officials: Reach out to local government representatives to express your support for the budget. Your opinion can influence their decisions.
- Spread the Word: Use social media, community forums, and local events to inform others about the importance of the FY2026 budget. Encourage friends, family, and colleagues to support the proposal.

York County's first responders are committed to protecting and serving the community. However, they need the support of the citizens and business owners to continue doing so effectively. The proposed FY2026 budget is a crucial step towards enhancing emergency services and ensuring the safety and well-being of everyone in York County. By coming together and backing this budget, the community can help provide first responders with the resources they need to perform their duties at the highest level. Thank you for your support!
