

COUNTY OF YORK, VIRGINIA

America's Future Since 1781

P25-6

PROCLAMATION

FRONTLINE WORKER APPRECIATION MONTH

May, 2025

WHEREAS, Frontline Workers, such as those in healthcare, retail, emergency responders, police/deputies, firefighters, and more, constitute approximately 70 percent of the U.S. workforce; and

WHEREAS, they play a crucial role in maintaining economic stability and ensuring the continuous operation of essential services; and

WHEREAS, in the public health and safety arena, these professionals, including nurses, medics, firefighters, and community health workers, play a crucial role in delivering medical care and health education, significantly improving community health outcomes; and

WHEREAS, their efforts lead to increased access to healthcare services, enhanced health screenings, and a better understanding between community members and the healthcare system; and

WHEREAS, Frontline Workers who provide educational and childcare services are fundamental in fostering learning and development, ensuring the continuous education of future generations; and

WHEREAS, during crises, such as the COVID-19 pandemic, Frontline Workers have been instrumental in maintaining essential services, thereby enhancing community resilience and cohesion; and

WHEREAS, a tremendous debt of gratitude is owed to all Frontline Workers for their dedication of time, energy and expertise to ensure the safety and well-being of our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED by the York County Board of Supervisors that the month of May, 2025 be, and it is hereby, designated as, FRONTLINE WORKER APPRECIATION MONTH, in the County of York, Virginia, and its significance is called to the attention of all York County citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the County of York, Virginia, to be affixed this the 15TH day of April.

Sheila S. Noll, Chairman
York County Board of Supervisors