ORGANIZATION OF THE 2007 YORK COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

ESTABLISH RULES OF PROCEDURE

Mr. Shepperd indicated he had one change to recommend. He stated the Board has adopted an easier approach to addressing issues that are on the Consent Calendar without having to remove the item. He noted the Board members just talk about the ones on which they have questions. He stated Section 3-1.1 states "There shall be no debate or discussion by any member of the Board regarding any item on the Consent Calendar, beyond asking questions for simple clarification," and he recommended that the Board continue with its current procedure, and delete the entire second paragraph of that section, which would allow the Board to continue with a more informal approach.

Mr. Zarembo moved the adoption of proposed Resolution R08-1(R) that reads:

A RESOLUTION TO ADOPT THE YORK COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS' RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR 2008

BE IT RESOLVED by the York County Board of Supervisors this 2nd day of January, 2008, that the following Rules of Procedures be, and they are hereby, adopted for 2008:

OPEN DISCUSSION

Mr. Zaremba wished everyone a Happy New Year. He noted it was his opinion that 2008 was going to be a tough year with the budget. The Board has some very important programs and services to provide to the citizens, and the tax assessments, which have increased, are just now going out. He stated the Board will be challenged to meet all the programs and services while minimizing the tax burden on the citizens. Mr. Zaremba indicated the challenge is in balancing the requirements with the tax rate, and what will make it particularly challenging is the dilemma at the state level because it is predicting a shortfall in revenue, and the state habitually turns to the localities to make up the shortfall through unfunded mandates. Mr. Zaremba indicated he was proud to be a part of this Board, and he looked forward to an exciting year.

Mr. Wiggins addressed the people of District 3 to thank them for giving him the opportunity to serve the County. He expressed his sincere appreciation for the confidence and trust they placed in him to work hard and help them with their problems regarding York County government. Mr. Wiggins then addressed several issues which the citizens have brought to his attention which include:

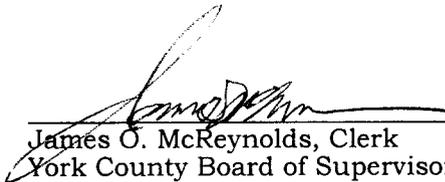

- Trash pickup on private lanes
- Drainage
- Inadequate parking at Seaford Elementary school
- Down-zoning to smaller lots
- Taxes and tax assessments for senior citizens
- Homeowners obtaining building permits
- Clean business growth

He stated he will do everything he can to keep County spending on needs instead of wants, and he plans to conduct quarterly meetings for the citizens in District 3. Mr. Wiggins stated he looked forward to working with the other Board members on these and other issues.

January 2, 2008

Chairman Shepperd welcomed Mr. Wiggins back to the Board of Supervisors, stating his years of experience will play well in helping the Board solve problems it faces in the future. He also welcomed Mr. Hrichak to a full four years on the Board. He stated York County is a great and safe community, and the Board needs to continue watching how it spends the citizens' money. He noted he had received a lot of input on the assessments and how they are determined, and he indicated the citizens will be given an opportunity to appeal their assessments if they wish. He stated that drainage is a huge dollar item the Board will continue to look at in the coming year, and schools, traffic, and sewers are other areas of concern to be addressed. Mr. Shepperd noted that the 13-field sports complex also will be coming on line this year. He stated he looks forward to working with the Board members to work through these problems and get it right as they have done in the past.

Meeting Adjourned. At 6:26 p.m. Chairman Shepperd declared the meeting adjourned to 6:00 p.m., Monday, January 14, 2008, in the School Board Offices, for the purpose of conducting a joint meeting with the York County School Board.
