

Board seeks applicants for Transportation Safety Commission

FOR RELEASE AT WILL

The York County Board of Supervisors is seeking applications from county citizens interested in serving on the York County Transportation Safety Commission to fill future vacancies. This is an advisory body to the Board on issues related to transportation safety in the county.

The length of term for appointees is three years. The commission meets in March, June, September, and December on the second Monday of the month. Meetings are at noon and are held in the Lower County.

York County citizens interested in applying for future appointment to the Transportation Safety Commission can obtain an application at the County Administrator's Office at 224 Ballard Street in Yorktown or by calling 890-3320. Applications can also be obtained and filed by using the county Web site. Visit www.yorkcounty.gov, click on On-Line Services, and click on Board Bank Application.

For more information on the Transportation Safety Commission, please call the York County Planning Division at 890-3404.
