

Signs of the Past on the Riverwalk

While walking along the waterfront, we invite you to discover some of Yorktown's past by reading the signs placed along the way.

Although Yorktown is best known for the Siege of 1781 that resulted in the surrender of the British army to the Allied forces, there is much more to know about our past ... and present. Read on to learn about interesting events, geography, and structures.

York County collaborated with the National Park Service, Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation (Yorktown Victory Center), Watermen's Museum and York County Historical Museum to develop these overviews. If a sign intrigues you, visit one of our museums to learn more.

We welcome your questions or comments. For more details about information on signs along the Riverwalk, visit www.yorkcounty.gov/ychm.
